

STATE AT LARGE.

NEWS NOTES CATERED HERE AND THERE IN NORFOLK.

The Moody-and-Sankey Meetings-The Republicans in the Navy-Yard Temperance Convention.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, April 16, 1886.

This morning Messrs. Moody and Sankey held two services—one at 10 o'clock at Cumberland-Street Methodist Episcopal church, when Mr. Moody addressed the Christians and another at 11 o'clock at Queen-Street Methodist Episcopal church, when he preached to the colored people again. Both were very interesting services, and, as usual, greater crowds attended than the buildings would accommodate.

There continues considerable feeling in Democratic circles over the persistent retention of Republicans in the navy-yard, while life-long and suffering Democrats are to get any sort of employment in the yard. Every member in the yard is a negro Republican, but there because of his politics; and yet these places pay $2 a day, and would be a godsend to hundreds of suffering white men in Portsmouth who are true and tried Democrats. Republicans also continue in prominent positions in the custom-house, and it looks as if they are going to stay.

A dense fog prevails along the coast to-day, and nothing whatever can be seen passing a hundred yards from the shore.

The United States steamer Dolphin remained yesterday at the navy-yard awaiting the pleasure of the Secretary of the Navy, and no one on board seems to expect orders shortly.

The naval hospital here is nearly empty. There are only twenty patients under treatment, and all convalescing. The building will accommodate twelve hundred patients.

The local-option campaign in Princess Anne is said to be very warm. The whiskey-men are making a desperate struggle to carry the county.

PETERSBURG.

Death of an Old Citizen—The Feeling Against Coupons—Hunting-Court Proceedings.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

APRIL 15, 1886.

Mr. Thomas G. Fenner, aged about sixty-four years, a prominent and esteemed citizen of Prince George county, died last night.

It was remarked by a citizen of Chesterfield to-day that the feeling among the people of that county against paying taxes in coupons is not only universal, but very strong. This was evidenced by the temper of the recent meeting which adopted the resolutions against such payment. It may be stated that last year not a single citizen of the county tendered coupons in payment of taxes, and not one, it is believed, will do so this year. So far no steps have been taken to hold a meeting of citizens of Petersburg to discontinue coupons.

The local-option people are becoming more active each day. A post-office has recently been established at Ettrick (across the river), Chesterfield county, the mails are only sent there every alternate day. Including the people of the village and immediate vicinity, there are some eight hundred persons who will receive their mail at Ettrick.

The Hustings Court met to-day. Several indictments were found by the grand jury, among them one against Fergus Walsh, a white man, passing counterfeit money. Walsh is a stranger, and had only been here a few days when arrested. The case of George Clark (colored), charged with the murder of his wife, was continued until next week on account of sickness of counsel. The court will doubtless be in session for two weeks or more, and after disposing of the criminal and civil docket applications for liquor licenses will be heard.

LYNCHBURG.

Railroad-Meeting—Officers Elected.

(Special telegraph to the Dispatch.)

LYNCHBURG, Va., April 15.—At a meeting of the co-operators of the Lynchburg, Halifax and North Carolina railroad here to-day Major Peter J. Otey, a prominent bank-cashier, was elected president of the company, and Wood Boulton, Jr., of Halifax county, vice-president, together with a board of directors.

This road is to run from Lynchburg to Durham, N. C. Colonel Winstead, of Person county, N. C., and a delegation of capitalists and business-men from that State were present. There seemed to be no doubt about the early building of the road.

The two negroes Watkins and Steppe, charged with the murder of Lizzie Wilson at Roanoke, have been brought to Lynchburg and placed in jail here. Two trials have miscarried at Roanoke on account of the unwillingness of the negro jurors there to find a verdict against the prisoners.

The cases have been transferred to Lynchburg, and the prisoners will be tried at the next term of the Corporation Court. Judge Latham, of the Corporation Court, is reported to be seriously ill with pneumonia.

Rev. J. Anderson Taylor, a colored Baptist preacher of Richmond, is speaking here for the prohibitionists among the colored people. He spoke to a large audience last night, and to-night addressed fifteen hundred persons in Jackson-Street Methodist church.

The Election in Florida.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

FLOYD C. H., April 12, 1886.

I have seen no report from any election on local option in the State. I presume the first election was at this place on the 10th instant.

The friends of local option petitioned the Court and the Court ordered an election for Jacksonville district only, as that was thought to be the stronghold of temperance.

A school-house canvass was made, and the prohibition men felt jubilant when they could plainly see the tide was against them.

A much larger vote was cast than was expected. Old men who had not voted for years hobbled to the polls, and, while it was contended that prohibition was a move toward morality and religion, and that it was Christian duty to vote against license, it must be admitted that as devout Christians as could be found in this mountain region voted for license. There was more mad voting done than was ever seen here. Gray-headed men voted as if it was their last stake for liberty.

The count stood 303 for license and 77 against license.

the purpose of selecting delegates to attend the State Local-Option Convention which meets in Lynchburg on the 21st instant. The following gentlemen were chosen: R. K. Rice, Rev. Mr. Flary, J. T. Smart, E. H. Kohn, Rev. L. R. Green, and Rev. S. A. Rice (colored). The Democratic Executive Committee for the city met last night and decided to hold a primary on the 4th of May, at which time candidates for the city offices will be nominated.

West Hanover Presbytery. (Reported for the Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTEVILLE, Va., April 15, 1886.

The spring meeting of the West Hanover Presbytery began here last night. Rev. Mr. Withers preached the opening sermon.

Rev. Benjamin M. Smith, D. D., was elected moderator and Elders Fry and Holliday clerks.

The roll this morning showed about twenty-five members present. The session was occupied with the reading of the minutes, presentation of reports, and other routine business.

Rev. Roger Martin, of North Carolina, is present, and will preach to-night.

A Business Move.

(Seasideville Correspondent.)

We understand that Captain Patterson's storehouse, formerly located in Buckingham, opposite Highland station, was found in the town of Howardsville, some four or five miles down the river, when the waters subsided Friday.

VESSELS ABANDONED AT SEA.

A French Brig and a Russian Bark Wrecked—Three Men Missing.

A Philadelphia special says: Captain Campbell, of the British bark Laura Emily, which arrived at this port to-day from London, reports that on March 28th, when in latitude 36° 07', longitude 51° 33', he passed the French brig Deux Freres, Captain Audieus, from St. Pierre, Martinique, for Boston, disabled and abandoned. She was a complete wreck, and the water was flowing in and out of her hold. The British steamer Sarah Ann, at galley, Ireland, from this port, reports having fallen in with the Deux Freres on the 5th of March, ho to, and took off four of the sailors, but the captain and mate refused to leave the wrecked vessel. On March 9th the British steamer Beaulieu fell in with the wrecked vessel 700 miles off shore, with only the captain, mate, and a small boy on board. The officers of the Beaulieu begged them to leave the wrecked vessel, but they positively refused. After supplying them with provisions she steamed off toward her destination. Captain Campbell and officers of the Laura Emily say that there were no signs of life whatever on board the brig when they passed her. The general opinion is that the two men and the boy have perished.

Captain Cecce, of the Italian bark Teressa, which arrived here to-day from Messina, after a passage of 102 days, reports having encountered terrible westerly gales throughout the entire passage, with heavy seas. On March 1st, when in latitude 37° 50' north, longitude 37° west, he sighted a vessel flying signals of distress. He was down on her and found it to be the Russian bark Flying Fish, Captain Blankenburg, from the West Indies, with a cargo of sugar, bound for Glasgow, leaking and in a bad condition, having encountered a hurricane. He took Captain Blankenburg and ten men, all told, off the wrecked vessel after great difficulty. When the crew left her she had a reefed upper topsail, foretop-mast stay-sail, and mizenstay-sail set. After having the men on board for twenty days he sighted the bark Jane Law from Port Royal for Glasgow, to which vessel he transferred the crew. The Flying Fish was 393 tons register, and was built in Sunderland, England, in 1858. J. Grell, of Kinga, was her principal owner.

Tobacco Under the Ban.

From what I have seen among the churches and from the information gathered from the concourse of students here, I find that a minister who either smokes or chews tobacco cannot get a call to any prominent church, either here or in the West. To do either is considered a crime and a downright sin. Nuptials are found in these churches. Tobacco-chewers are not supposed to go to church. Fortunately none of the Virginia students here either smoke or chew; and if they did, they would be considered out of the house for ever.

Rev. J. B. Lemon would like to see the Flying Fish at the Religious Herald from Rochester Theological Seminary, N. Y.

Typographical Union Enjoined.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 14.—All the officers of the New Haven Typographical Union and some of the members were enjoined to-day by the Superior Court upon a petition of counsel for the Journal and Courier Publishing Company from further engaging in the boycott recently declared, or in any way injuring the business of the company, under penalty of $5,000. The company claims in its petition to the court that its business has been injured to the extent of $2,000 in three days.
